AMENDED 32. Florida 2006-2007 Consolidated Application for Selected Federal Programs

Motion was made by Mrs. Stidham to postpone Florida 2006-2007 Consolidation Application for Selected Federal Programs until the June 27, 2006 Special Meeting (re: Budget). Motion died for lack of a second.

Motion was made by Mrs. Hightower and seconded by Mr. Gindl, to approve Florida 2006-2007 Consolidated Application for Selected Federal Programs. (NOTE: The amended backup documentation for this item indicated that the following schools would no longer be recommended for Title I funding: Jim Allen Elementary, Bellview Elementary, Bellview Middle, Bratt Elementary, Byrneville Elementary, Ferry Pass Elementary, Longleaf Elementary, Myrtle Grove Elementary, OASIS, and Wedgewood Middle. Justification for this recommendation was also included in that documentation.) Mrs. Hightower, Mr. Gindl, Dr. Glover, and Mr. Bergosh noted that while this was a very difficult decision, they believed that something had to be done and therefore, they would support the recommendation. Mrs. Stidham wanted additional time to examine the issue further as she many concerns about the effects of the loss of funding on the ten schools listed. She indicated that she would not support the recommendation. Mrs. Hightower noted that she has been assured by staff that the ten schools no longer receiving Title I funding would be "given some support to help them with their short-comings." She requested that the Superintendent provide the Board with periodic reports on the status of those ten schools. Motion was approved 4 to 1, with Mrs. Stidham voting “No.”
