Sept. 22, 2011

Dear Eighth Grade Parent;

As the parent of students in high school, I know that you feel these middle school years have passed much too quickly. Here at Bellview, we would like to give parents the opportunity to express to your student how much you have cherished their middle school years and your expectations for their high school years. We will be selling advertisement spots in the back of the yearbook for $40 for 1/6 of a page. This will provide you with enough room for a small picture of your child and a 40 word message. From now until November 10th these ads will be $40. Yearbooks will sell for $35, but if you choose to purchase an advertisement and a yearbook together you will receive a $5 discount. So you will get an ad and a yearbook for $70, instead of $75.

Please return this letter (see the back for form) with your check made out to Bellview Middle School with a small wallet sized picture of your child and what you want your message to say by Nov. 10, 2011. If you return this form and a check/money with a student please send it in an envelope to Mrs. Gibbs or you can mail the ad to:
